ALAMO HALL

Originally one of San Antonio's first firehouses, Alamo Hall is an ideal location for receptions and dinner functions. The newly renovated building features a spacious kitchen and French doors that open up to a beautiful limestone patio. A perfect indoor/outdoor combination, the space is well suited for optional out-of-doors entertainment, spirits, and dining.

CAVALRY COURTYARD

Cavalry Courtyard is an outdoor area shaded by tall Oaks and Texas Pecan trees. An excellent setting for live performances and military ceremonies, the courtyard features an elevated stone platform backed by the iconic Six flags of Texas as well as numerous canon including the famous 18 pounder used during the historic 1836 Battle of the Alamo.
