Remember, A Musical Honoring Those Who Gave Their Lives For Texas - February 29

The Alamo, in partnership with the Tobin Endowment are proud to present the world premiere of Remember, a musical honoring those who gave their lives for Texas on Saturday, February 29, 2020 at the Tobin Center for the Performing Arts, featuring the San Antonio Symphony, 11 actors, and a 75-voice chorus. Written and co-directed by W. Blake Winchell, with music by Composer Brett Strader, Remember will be a powerful performance that speaks to the legends, lore, and true spirit of Texas.

Tickets are on sale on the Tobin Center's website, starting at $29.50. Proceeds will benefit the Remember The Alamo Foundation.

Remember is part of Commemoration, 15-days of special programming that honors the anniversary of the battle. From February 22 through March 7, the public is encouraged to visit the Alamo. With many of these special events free, Commemoration is the best time of the year to visit the Shrine of Texas Liberty.

Author and Co-Director W. Blake Winchell, Composer Brett Strader, and the actors are available for interviews. Audio samples of songs from the play are available and include "Something To Fight For", "Land of Hope", and "Remember". These samples are password-protected and should not be distributed publicly, only used for on-air segments. Password is Alamo1836. Please reach out to the Alamo if you would like to schedule an interview.
