Travel the Timeline of the Texas Revolution – Virtually – With the Alamo October 10 - 11

SAN ANTONIO – Join the Alamo on a virtual road trip along the Timeline of the Texas Revolution and learn about other Texas historic sites without leaving the comfort of your own home. Typically an event hosted on the Alamo grounds, this year's Timeline of the Texas Revolution will bring experts from Texas historic sites together on the Alamo's Facebook page on October 10 and 11.

Throughout the weekend of October 10th and 11th, followers of the Official Alamo Facebook page can find informative videos featuring experts from historic sites in Texas which joined the Alamo in securing our freedoms during the Texas Revolution. As experts visit the Alamo virtually, viewers will learn about the historical role of the City of Gonzales, Washington on the Brazos, San Felipe de Austin, Presidio La Bahia, the San Jacinto Battleground, the Texas Independence Trail Region, and get a virtual taste of what these sites have to offer should they decide to visit in the future.

What: Timeline of the Texas Revolution, virtual lessons from the Alamo and other State historic sites about their importance during the Texas Revolution.

Who: Public

When: Saturday, October 10th through Sunday, October 11th
Throughout the day
